

KENNESAW STATE UNIVERSITY POINTS OF PRIDE

Enrollment

Total Enrollment:
35,420
Alumni:
over 113,000

One of the 50 largest public institutions in the country

Academics

Kennesaw State has been elevated to an R2 classification – a doctoral institution with high research activity – by the Carnegie Classification of Institutions of Higher Learning. KSU is one of only 259 (Top 6%) institutions to carry the “R1” or “R2” designation nationally.

The university has more than 150 undergraduate, master's and doctoral programs.

Recognition

Kennesaw State is consistently recognized in national rankings, including:

U.S. News and World Report (2019)

- Ranked top 10 nationally in admissions yield rates
- Online MBA program (1st in Georgia, 21st among programs nationally)
- Top 100 for its six engineering graduate degree programs
- Ranked 1st in Georgia and No. 38 nationally for Master of Science in Information Technology

Diverse: Issues in Higher Education (2017)

- Top 100 in degrees conferred to minorities

Insight into Diversity

- Diversity Champions (among top 12 nationally)

American Council of Trustees and Alumni

- An “A” rating for high-quality core curriculum for seven consecutive years

National Collegiate Sales Competition

- Finished top 10 in the Nation

Billboard Magazine

- Ranked the Joel A. Katz Music and Entertainment Business program in top 15 nationally

cyberdegrees.org

- KSU ranked 1st in online cybersecurity degrees

The Carnegie Foundation

- Kennesaw State was named among the top 10 percent of institutions nationally, for its ongoing collaborative efforts with the larger community

Athletics

Overall

- KSU won the 2017-18 Bill Bibb Trophy for having the top overall athletics program in the Atlantic Sun Conference (includes both men's and women's sports)

Football

- 2017 and 2018 Big South Conference champions

Track and Field (men)

- 2017 and 2018 Atlantic Sun Conference indoor and outdoor champions

Track and Field (women)

- 2017 Atlantic Sun Conference indoor and outdoor champions and 2018 Atlantic Sun Conference outdoor champions

Team's sideline trophy – Plank

- Ranked #4 on Yahoo Sports list of best turnover celebrations in college football

Economic Impact

- Kennesaw State has an annual economic impact on the local and regional economy of more than $1.4 billion

Students/Alumni

- 82% of students said they were mostly or very happy with their decision to pursue a degree at KSU
- 90% of alumni said it was a good or great decision to attend KSU

Last Revised: 02/20/19